DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 4-5, 7-8, 12-13 and 15-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In the claim 4-5,8,12-13 and 16 the phrase "Rt0 represents an output switching transistor of the output" is vague and indefinite.

In regards to claim 7 and 15, phrase "the DC-to-DC converter to determine a digital value;" is confusing and unclear what is the digital value?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) The invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Peterson et al. (U.S. patent # 4,498,128).

Art Unit: 2838

Peterson et al. disclose the claimed invention a current limiting in a DC-to-DC converter (figure 1-2), limiting duty cycle of the DC-to-DC converter to the zero loading duty cycle plus the duty cycle loading offset (column 3, line 1-40), a maximum inductor current of the DC-to-DC converter (column 2, line 55-70). In regards to claim 3, (column 5, line 1-15).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 9-11 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rybicki (U.S. patent # 5,483,182) in combination with Peterson et al. (U.S. Patent # 4,498,128).

Rybicki discloses the claimed invention an on-chip DC-to-DC converter (figure 2 and 3), an external inductor (figure 2, item 14), an output capacitance (figure 2, item 20); the regulation module provides current limiting of the output (figure 2, item signal 50), a comparator (figure 2, item 42). However Rybicki does not disclose the utilization technique for a limiting duty cycle of the output to the zero loading. Peterson et al. disclose the utilization of the similar technique for a limiting duty cycle of the output to the zero loading (column 3, line 1-40). It would have been obvious one having an ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Rybicki DC-DC converter by utilizing the technique taught by Peterson et al. for the purpose of increasing efficiency and reliability.
